This case is before the Court on a Report and Recommendation filed by United States Magistrate Judge Greg White, regarding the change of plea hearing of James L. Williams, which was referred to the Magistrate Judge with the consent of the parties.

On December 21, 2010, the government filed a one-count Indictment, charging Defendant, James L. Williams, with Felon in Possession, in violation of Title 18 United States Code, Section 922(g)(1). Defendant Williams was arraigned on February 9, 2011, and entered a plea of not guilty to Count 1, before Magistrate Judge Greg White. On June 3, 2011, Magistrate Judge Greg White, received Defendant Williams's plea of guilty to Count 1 of the Indictment, and issued a Report and Recommendation ("R&R"), concerning whether the plea should be accepted and a finding of guilty entered.

Neither party submitted objections to the Magistrate Judge's R&R in the ten days after it was issued.

On de novo review of the record, the Magistrate Judge's R&R is adopted. Defendant James L. William is found to be competent to enter a plea and to understand his constitutional rights. He is aware of the charges and of the consequences of entering a plea. There is an adequate factual basis for the plea. The Court finds the plea was entered knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily. The plea agreement is approved.

Therefore, Defendant Williams is adjudged guilty to Count 1 of the Indictment, in violation of Title 18 United States Code, Section 922(g)(1). This matter was referred to the U. S. Probation Department for the completion of a pre-sentence investigation and report. Sentencing will be on August 25, 2011, at 10:00 a.m., in Courtroom 19-A, Carl B. Stokes United States Court House, 801 West Superior Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
